Salina Ramirez

Las Vegas, NV, December 8, 2008 — Salina Ramirez, Commercial Advisor at Prudential CRES | IPG sits on the Board of the “I Can Be” Committee with the Henderson Chamber of Commerce. The program is designed to help High School Freshmen students find their passion and point them in the right direction for their future career.

“I Can Be” will be hosting their second annual event on Dec. 4 at Chaparral High and another on March 10th at Basic High School. Prudential CRES | IPG Commercial Real Estate is one of the sponsors of the “I Can Be” program this year. The non-profit group was created by the Henderson Chamber of Commerce and the Henderson Development Authority. Mrs. Ramirez is a member of both the Henderson Chamber and Henderson Development Authority and she is dedicated to helping students achieve their goals in their future careers.

“By assisting the students through the “I Can Be” program we help them to recognize the opportunities that are available to them so they can get an early start with their curriculum to achieve their career goals. I am so excited to be a part of a great non-profit program that enables me to give back to my community,” says Mrs. Ramirez.

Mrs. Ramirez specializes in the sales and leasing of commercial real estate office space and retail with a focus on providing professional detail oriented service to her clients. Mrs. Ramirez consults with her clients regarding their real estate needs as well as selling and leasing properties. Mrs. Ramirez stays on top of what is happening in the Las Vegas commercial real estate market by reviewing market trends, observing the competition and by obtaining up to date information on demographic research in the Las Vegas area.
